

Autoresponder #1 Message #2 I Have Not Forgotten You

(Subject Line) [[firstname]], I have not Forgotten You

(Body)

Hi [[firstname]],

My name is Bob Andolina from Traffic Oasis and I wrote to you before because you said you were looking into earning an income from home. I hope you received that message for I know email can be a hard thing to keep up with these days.

I wanted you to know that I am trying to get in touch with you and have not forgotten you. However, there are many people who are asking for my help because they are also looking to start building an income from home.

I will be in touch with you very soon, I promise you that. But if you want me to call you sooner rather than later, send me an email as to the best time to call you as well as your time zone. I will then move you to the top of my list and do whatever it takes to get us together ASAP.

[[firstname]], did you watch the short movie I talked about in my last message to you? If not, why don't you do that after you email me.

There are many options on the Internet today for earning an income from home but you should stay far away from many of them. This is why I like to talk to people over the phone so that they see why we have been so successful over the last 50 years ... long before the Internet was even available.

We are a real business and a real opportunity for you to earn an income from home. This could be the perfect option for you so be sure to check out everything before you make a decision!

But first... ..I urge you again to email me so I see that you want to learn more now, and then take your next important step to independence by watching this movie.

Click here <http://www.discoveryyourbusiness.com/index.php?126333> and be sure to fill out the form that is there so I know to get in touch with you ASAP.

I'll look forward to meeting you soon...
